MRS. FORREST GOES WEST FOR PAGEANT

Author of Biblical Display Will Journey First to Seattle, Wash.

To assume charge of the presentation of "The Bbile Among the Nations," a pageant that will be given in various Western cities under the auspices of the American Bible Society, Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, author of the pageaut left Washington today.

She will journey first to Seattle, where the pageant is to be given in October. Later it will be staged in Portland, Sacramento, San Francisco, Denver, Celorado Springs, and Chicago. It is possible that it may be given in New York and Washington.

possible that it may be given in New York and Washington.

The pageant is the same that was given under the auspices of the American Bible Society in this city the past spring. The scenery used in the Washington performance already has been started on the trip.

"Though I will have to mold my plans to follow conditions I meet." said Mrs. Forrest today, "it is probable that I shall follow the same scheme I did here, where the various churches acted the episodes in the pageant as units. The advantage of this is, naturally, that the church is an organized body and most of them have parish halls in which to hold their rehearsals.

"In the Western States, particularly in California, there will be the additional pibturesque touch of the Christion Ghinese element in the pageant."

J. Wilder Tomlinson, of this city, left last week to do some of the preliminary work.
